Jeremiah 3:31 everlasting love

Exodus 34:6 And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.
Romans 8:35-39 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Love verses
These scriptures speak of God’s agape love. The love of God is so great that He sent His one and only son for each one of us! Take time to meditate on God’s sacrificial love today and let these Bible verses about love bring you peace and perspective.

1 John 4:16-18 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them. This is how love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

Romans 8:37-39 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Peter 5:6-7 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
At Compassion, God's love is our motivation for releasing children from poverty. Child sponsorship is a powerful demonstration of God's love to a child in need.

When you sponsor a child you empower them to overcome poverty. You show a child born into extreme fragility that they're known and valued.

Bible Verses about love for others

Hilda from Peru was sponsored with Compassion as a child.

"One of my neighbours told me about Compassion at my local church. I was sponsored through Compassion and started to go to the project every week. I was fed there and learnt how to take care of myself. I learnt I was special and that God loved me. My sponsor wrote me letters, they loved me so much even though we never met in person … All I can say is thank you so much for your love which showed me God's love."

1 John 4: 8 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.
John 15: 12-13 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.
1 Peter 4:8 Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.
1 Corinthians 16:14 Do everything in love.
Colossians 3:14 Above all, be loving. This ties everything together perfectly.
Ephesians 4:2-3 Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.
Love your enemies Bible verses
The Bible asks us to follow in Christ's footsteps and love our enemies. At times loving and forgiving our enemies can seem like an impossible thing to do, but God gives us the example of Jesus and His Holy Spirit to help us. Let these Bible verses about loving your enemies spur you on.

1 John 4:21 And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister."

Luke 6:35 But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked.
Luke 6:27-31 But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you.
1 Corinthians 13:4-8 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonour others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

Be still

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labour.
Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.
Genesis 2:24 That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh.
Mark 10:9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.
Ephesians 5:25-33 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church— for we are members of his body. “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church. However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.
Poverty can seem overwhelming, the injustice of it too vast. But sponsoring a child is a great way to start and bring God’s justice to one child in poverty.

Holy Quran

5 VERSES FROM THE HOLY QURAN ON LOVE

“Never will you attain the good [reward] until you spend [in the way of Allah] from that which you love. And whatever you spend – indeed, Allah is Knowing of it” [Quran 3:92].

The Holy Quran stands as a constant reminder to us all on the power of devotion and faith towards Allah, which is often represented through our deep love for God. Loving God can enable you to truly worship and devote yourself to faith, which can manifest in loving God’s creative art. God’s creative art – as seen in the beauty of a kind soul, the grand universe, or even in the blades of grass in a field – are all avenues to help find our way towards God.

To help rekindle, reaffirm, or find God and your love for Allah, here are five verses from the Holy Quran on the power and strength of love in faith:

ADVERTISE ON TMV

1. Affection and Mercy Between People
“And of His signs is that He created for you from yourselves mates that you may find tranquillity in them, and He placed between you affection and mercy. Indeed in that are signs for a people who give thought” [Quran 30:21].

Here the Quran helps us understand the innate human need for companionship – we are, after all, social beings who do need affection and love. Thus, within the folds of Islam, the Quran encourages us to find a companion and spouse, who can, in turn, help us understand the importance and joy in sharing affection and mercy between two people.

2. Believers Are Like Brothers
“The believers are but brothers, so make settlement between your brothers. And fear Allah that you may receive mercy” [Quran 49:10].

By equating all believers as brothers or family, the Holy Quran sets another reminder for us all that we must love one another as part of a broader family of humankind. Love should not be limited to romantic love or spousal love and should instead be utilized to help build a society of merciful and respectful brothers and sisters.

3. Do Good
“And do good; indeed, Allah loves the doers of good” [Quran 2:195].

ADVERTISE ON TMV

This seemingly simple verse offers a profound reflection on how to be a practising Muslim – to be loved by Allah, to be able to receive the love of the Most Highest, is a blessing beyond what many of us can imagine. All we have to do is to do good. While what it means to do good in this world could be expanded upon in another article, what we can take away from this line now is that we must always strive towards making the right decision in life, with the end goal of doing everything we can to try and receive the love of Allah.

4. We Will Return to Allah Together
“To each of you, We prescribed a law and a method. Had Allah willed, He would have made you one nation [united in religion], but [He intended] to test you in what He has given you; so race to [all that is] good. To Allah is your return all together, and He will [then] inform you concerning that over which you used to differ” [Quran 5:48].

Here the Holy Quran reminds us of two things: first, we were made different to be tested in numerous other ways, and second, in the end, we will all be returned to Allah together despite whatever differences we may have had during our lifetimes here on earth. Knowing that we are all returning to Allah together, despite our different tests and nations, can stand as a powerful reminder of the power of loving and respecting one another during our time in this world. The end will be the same for us all – we are returning to Allah to account for our deeds – which means we must always treat each other with a certain level of empathy and love.

5. Sharing Your Love
“Never will you attain the good [reward] until you spend [in the way of Allah] from that which you love. And whatever you spend – indeed, Allah is Knowing of it” [Quran 3:92].

Finally, the Quran teaches us the importance of sharing your love – for only by sharing your love can you truly understand how important it is. This verse reminds us that we must try to give and share whatever we may have, in the duty towards living in a society of brothers and sisters who respect and love one another like family.

Gandi about Bhagavat -I wile use this words the are very powerful. .

Mahatma Gandhi expressed his love for the Gita in these words:

I find solace in the Bhagavadgita that I lack even in the Sermon on the Mount. When disappointment stares me in the eye and all by myself I can't see a single ray of light, I turn to the Bhagavad Gita. I find a verse here and a verse there and immediately I begin to smile in the midst of great tragedies - and my life is full of external tragedies - and if they have not left a visible, indelible mark on me, I owe it all to the teachings of the Bhagavadgita
